

2010 CHILENSIS LAZULI

Review Summary

93 pts/GOLD MEDAL “Deep garnet black color. Bright complex aromas and flavors of banana meringue pie, dried currant, apple, olive, sandalwood and leather with a supple, dryish medium-to-full body and a long, earthy finish. A great steak wine.”

90 pts “Six grapes led by Cabernet Sauvignon have been blended into Lazuli, which starts out spicy and herbal. The palate is lively and juicy, with good overall feel. Peppery notes accent roasted berry flavors, while the finish delivers a strong spice and salty, herbal notes that are complex.”

88 pts “Brilliant ruby. A wild smoke- and spice-accented bouquet evokes dried cherry, cassis, cured meat and licorice. In a gamey, Old World style, offering sweet dark fruit flavors and suggestions of beef jerky, chewing tobacco and candied flowers. The silky yet penetrating finish is given shape by smooth, well-knit tannins.”
