

2012 STICKYBEAK PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

90 pts/GOLD MEDAL

Sommelier Challenge International Wine Competition 2014

89 pts “Dark red. Fresh red berries, candied rose and an exotic sandalwood note on the fragrant nose. Juicy and light on its feet, offering vibrant, sharply focused raspberry and cola flavors that pick up smokiness with air. Finishes spicy and long, with subtle tannins adding structure.”

88 pts/Editors’ Choice “This is a good price for a coastal Pinot Noir that’s so rich and balanced. It’s silky in the mouth, with luscious strawberry, cranberry and cola flavors, and deepened with notes of toasty oak.”
