

2013 CHATEAU DE SOURS BORDEAUX ROSÉ

Review Summary

89 pts “Pale orange. Spicy aromas of orange zest, red berries and honeysuckle with a subtle mineral overtone. Fresh and lively on the palate, offering tangy flavors of redcurrant, strawberry and blood orange. Finishes on a silky note, with a lingering suggestion of tangerine and good focus and persistence.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July 2014

“Despite advancements in the new world, rosés from France are still hard to beat. This elegant and dry style with its pretty pink hue has layers of raspberry, strawberry and floral fruits with an attractive herbal lift. Crisp, bright, light-bodied and youthful, it is all that good rosé should be.”

Angus Hughson
TheAustralian.com
March 6, 2015

“Did you double-take when you saw the price spread in this heading? I hope so!...The 2013 vintage of de Sours Rosé is a dreamboat with the Merlot and Cabernet grapes giving their most ravishing red fruit notes to date. The perfume and tenderness permeates the senses and grabs hold of your soul. At only 12.5% alc. vol. it is refreshing and uplifting, but there’s beguiling depth here, too.”

Matthew Jukes
MatthewJukes.com
February 21, 2014