

2012 MOUNT MARY QUINTET

Review Summary

97 pts – Best of Cabernet & Family 2015 “Bright crimson; the bouquet swarms with aromas of red and black fruits and quality oak; the medium-bodied palate is supremely elegant, yet boasts all the intensity one could wish for, with vibrant cassis and redcurrant fruit on a non-stop trip in a very fast train; of course there is tannin and French oak, but these characters are largely passive observers.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2015

94 pts “Bright ruby. Potent blackcurrant, cherry pit, pipe tobacco and incense aromas are lifted by lavender note. Stains the palate with bitter cherry and dark berry liqueur flavors that are braced by zesty acidity and a kick of black pepper. This seamless, focused blend finishes with powerful thrust, smooth slow-mounting tannins and a whiplash of sweet dark fruit. A baby for sure, but this wine's assertive fruit and well-knit tannins make it surprisingly approachable now with some air.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2014