

2013 FRISK PRICKLY
RIESLING
Review Summary

92 pts/GOLD MEDAL “Bracing and vibrant. Floral and clean. Mouth cleansing acidity balances the sweetness and prevents it from being cloying. Good aperitif or with spicy fare.”

Michael Apstein
Critics Challenge International Wine Competition 2014

88 pts “Green-tinged straw. Displays scents of fresh melon and peach, with a hint of ginger adding lift and spiciness. Silky and seamless on the palate, offering juicy honeydew and pear nectar flavors and a sharp kick of white pepper. Finishes on a gently sweet note, with good breadth and cling. I'd serve this with spicy southeast Asian poultry or seafood dishes.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2014

“I've enjoyed this Riesling for a few years now; the name comes from the fact that the wine has a prickly sensation on your tongue. Pleasing aromas of melon, white peach and elderflowers. Medium-bodied with tasty ripe fruit and a nicely structured finish with tangy acidity. Irresistible now, best fresh, but can be enjoyed over the next 3-5 years.”

Tom Hyland
Reflections on Wine
July 2014