

2012 POGGIOTONDO VERMENTINO IGT

Review Summary

POGGIOTONDO

89 pts “The 2012 Vermentino is soft, gorgeous and expressive. Varietal notes abound, but the 2012 is above all else a wine that stands out for the textural richness that results from a brief period of aging on the lees.”

88 pts – BEST BUY “Dried-fruit scents and litchi notes introduce this wine, turning toward fresh cream and marzipan in the end. Pleasant bitterness keeps it in balance, a nut-skin savor that will match roast fish.”
