

2012 PLANTAGENET OMRAH PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

90 pts “Good color and clarity; a very handy pinot at this price, with clear varietal expression in a red and black cherry spectrum; while the structure needs a little more conviction, the fruit flavors are persistent, and carry the day.”

88 pts "This supple medium-bodied Pinot Noir is ready to drink. Predominantly earthy notes of leather and dried spices are harmonious and complex without being overly demanding."

88 pts “Brilliant red. Dried cherry and rose aromas are complicated by hints of musky herbs and woodsmoke. Taut and sharply focused, offering good thrust to its bitter cherry and orange pith flavors. A spicy note appears on the finish, which features dusty tannins and a hint of bitter chocolate.”

BEST VALUE RED “Sourced from estate vineyards in Mount Barker, this has ripe primal redcurrant and strawberry flavors, fleshy texture and pleasing glugability. Intense yet light of body.”
