

2010 CHILCAS SINGLE VINEYARD PAIS

Review Summary

90 pts “País (aka mission) was the first variety Spanish conquistadors brought to the New World. It’s often rustic, this one bringing to mind the mountains of western Maule and their granitic soils. Give it air to reveal the fresh, wild berry flavors and herbs even as the texture remains tight and astringent. A delicious match with morcilla.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
February 2012

90 pts

Descorchados Guide
October 2011