

2013 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN RIESLING

Review Summary

94 pts “Bright, light quartz; most attractive, managing to combine plenty of citrus fruit with a crisp, minerally acid structure; a dead set candidate for 5+ years cellaring.”

93 pts “It’s hard to believe this is Kilikanoon’s basic Riesling. The cool 2013 season produced a wine that courses with energy, classic Clare in its clean line of minerally lime flavor; tasting director Stephanie Johnson described it as ‘electric.’ Focused and firm when first opened, this mellows into a deliciously creamy, lime-rich Riesling over the course of several days.”

90+ pts “With expressive, forward notes of white peaches, lime cordial and pink grapefruit accented by a touch of wet slate, the light-bodied and dry 2013 Killerman’s Run Riesling has a very crisp line of lively acidity cutting through the fruit before it finishes long and clean.”

89 pts “Pale yellow. Fresh lemon and apple scents give way to deeper pit fruits with air, picking up a hint of white flowers. Smooth and fleshy on entry, then firmer in the mid-palate, offering bitter citrus fruit and pear skin flavors firmed by juicy acidity. Closes with good focus and bite, leaving a subtle peppery note behind.”

88 pts – Very Good “This white gold colored Riesling from the Clare Valley is a classic Aussie dry style. It opens with a lime zest, flint and mild tangerine like bouquet. On the palate, this wine is light bodied, acidic, zesty and mouthwatering. The flavor profile is a mineral infused mild tart grapefruit with notes of tangerine and hint of lime. The finish is pretty dry and its fresh acidity and flavors linger nicely. This Riesling will pair nicely with oysters or sushi.”

88 pts “Lean. Linear. Crisp. Focused. This is textbook dry Riesling, showing lime aromas and flavors tinged with hints of talcum powder and beeswax.”

Exceptional “This young wine already has a trace of the TDC/petrol character you often get in older wines. Stylish and basically dry. It has a tiny trace of sugar, so it isn’t austere. As with many Aussie Rieslings, it has a great future.”
