

2011 CHILENSIS LAZULI

Review Summary

91 pts “This six-grape blend is led by Cabernet Sauvignon. Aromas of toasty, rooty berry fruits come with an essence of cola. The palate is layered and mellow, offering mild tannins. An oaky flavor profile includes coconut and vanilla, while the finish is spicy, mildly herbal and a touch chocolaty.”

Michael Schachner
Wine Enthusiast
March 2015

91 pts/Year’s Best Chilean Reds “Ripe red fruit flavor comes pouring out of the glass, followed by equally exuberant black fruit, making this a voluptuous red to uncork at a steakhouse. Its pointed acidity will find a welcome companion in rare filet mignon.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
February 2015

91 pts “A solid red with berries, walnut shells, stone and clay character. Full body, firm tannins and a firm finish.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
August 13, 2014

90 pts “Bright violet color. Vibrant aromas of black raspberry, fresh flowers and peppery spices, with hints of licorice and cola in the background. Ripe and fleshy yet lively, offering intense red and dark berry flavors that stretch out and gain sweetness with aeration. Fine-grained tannins provide grip to the finish, which hangs on with strong fruit-driven tenacity.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
June 2015