

2014 JANE EYRE GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN

Review Summary

92 pts “This has an earthy and more cryptic mood on the nose with a brambly, gently herbal edge, a little cassis, some leafy nuances and a mineral thread with a definitive oak moment, plus plenty of cherry fruit too. The palate has good depth and drive and the structure is quite fine, tannins are definitively expressed and the weight is nicely delivered.”
