

2013 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ MORGON 'CÔTE DU PY'

Review Summary

92 pts “Youthful violet. A highly aromatic bouquet evokes fresh dark fruits, incense and Asian spices, along with a bright mineral overtone. Juicy and expansive, offering appealingly sweet boysenberry preserve, floral pastille and spiced cake flavors lifted by zesty acidity. Delivers a suave blend of power and finesse, finishing with well-knit tannins and excellent clarity and length.”

90 pts “Distinct notes of pepper, dark berry fruit, earth and a hint of game precede attractively rich and textured medium-bodied flavors that possess solid complexity and lovely balance on the lingering finish. While this could certainly be enjoyed young, with a brief aeration there is enough stuffing to reward as much as 3 to 5 years of age, perhaps even more. Great value.”
