

2013 POGGIOTONDO CHIANTI RISERVA DOCG

Review Summary

POGGIOTONDO

92 pts “The 2013 Chianti Riserva is one of the best wines I have tasted from Poggiotondo. Dark cherry, plum and spice are all given an extra kick of creaminess by the addition of 10% Merlot in the blend. Beautifully textured and expressive, the 2013 offers terrific density and impeccable overall balance. Alberto Antonini aged the 2013 exclusively in cask.”

91 pts “This is opulent, with warm, spicy notes of black cherry, plum, tobacco and spice. Turns dense and grainy on the earth-accented finish, showing fine harmony and length.”
