

2014 FRISK PRICKLY
RIESLING
Review Summary

88 pts “If you would like to conjure up memories of this past summer sipping wine at the pool or on your deck, this is a good wine to help bring back those memories! This pale straw colored Riesling opens with a bouquet of apricots, light pear, tangerine and hints of honey. The fizzy and lively palate includes light citrus, lime, honey and hints of black licorice. The wine is light bodied, easy going, smooth and balanced with an appealing dry green apple finish. I would pair this Australian Riesling with grilled scallops and start thinking summer!”

KensWineGuide.com
January 22, 2017

88 pts/BEST BUY “Light, off-dry and refreshing, this would make an ideal poolside sipper. Hints of damp moss and fern add complexity to green apple and citrus flavors.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
April 2016

88 pts “Bright straw. Lime, grapefruit and a strong suggestion of honeysuckle on the nose and in the mouth. Highly perfumed, racy and vaguely spritzy, this acts a lot like a lot like Muscat. Finishes with deeper mango and peach notes, a touch of citrus zest and good length. This wine would pair nicely with a wide range of spicy foods, especially those of the Asian persuasion.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
March 2016

88 pts “A fun, party-ready, off-dry riesling with a light fizz. It tastes of baked apple, lime zest and honey; clean, fruity and appealing. It's well made and priced right. Give it a very stern chill and drink it like moscato.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2016