

2014 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ MORGON 'CÔTE DU PY'

Review Summary

92 pts “Vivid magenta. A heady, exotically perfumed bouquet evokes ripe cherry and boysenberry, and subtle smoke and floral nuances emerge steadily. Sweet, seamless and penetrating, offering concentrated red and dark berry and violet pastille flavors that show impressive vivacity for their heft. Fine-grained tannins add gentle grip to a very long, focused finish that leaves a sweet boysenberry note behind.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
August 2016

91 pts/Savvy Shopper “A juicy, firm acidity bursts through the concentrated red currant, black cherry and pomegranate flavors in this sleek red. A tangy undertone carries the floral- and spice-infused finish.”

Gillian Sciaretta
Wine Spectator
February 2017