

2014 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN CABERNET

Review Summary

90 pts “For $20, you could do a lot worse than to sample this wine, which boasts plenty of varietal character and ample quality. Cedar, tobacco, cassis and dark chocolate suggest a fully ripe wine, while the structure remains fine and linear, with gentle, cocoa-powder-textured tannins that line the finish.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
April 2017

88 pts “Medium to deep garnet-purple in color, the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Killerman’s Run has a pronounced blackcurrant, eucalypt and blueberry laced nose with hints of pencil lead and dried Mediterranean herbs. Medium-bodied, soft, lively and fruit in the mouth, it delivers plenty of uncomplicated menthol laced black fruit flavors and good length.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
June 2016