

2012 PENLEY ESTATE STEYNING CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

96 pts “Fermented in French hogsheads, matured in new French oak for 29 months. As with some of the other Penley wines, has a stained cork. Everything is written large with this wine - its label, its bottle, its fruit, oak and tannins. It is apparently trying to out-John Riddoch John Riddoch, but it's far too early to judge its success.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2016

