

2016 LA FLEUR d'AMELIE BORDEAUX ROSÉ

Review Summary

88 pts “Pale orange. Lively and focused on the nose, displaying fresh strawberry and tangerine scents and a touch of jasmine. Chewy, focused and dry in the mouth, offering tangy red berry and bitter citrus pith flavors and hints of tarragon and white pepper. Clean and taut on the incisive finish, which hangs on with good, spicy tenacity.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
June 2017