

2014 GREYWACKE PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

94 pts “An earthy edge together with graphite and baking spices here as well as dark cherries and redder fruits: It’s all nicely layered on the nose. The palate has smooth, lightly textured but richly flavored fruit in the form of spiced cherries and plums. Plenty of depth offered by this great pinot.”

93 pts “Detailed, with notes of dried lavender, white pepper, fresh loamy earth and black tea set against a core of strawberry and raspberry flavors. Smooth and plush, this becomes even more expressive on the finish, where spice details fan out.”

92 pts/Editors’ Choice “Making top-flight Marlborough Pinot Noir wasn’t easy in 2014, so this is an especially notable effort from Kevin Judd. Classic savory, forest-floor notes frame black-tea and plum flavors in this concentrated, richly textured wine.”

91 pts “Medium ruby colored, the 2014 Pinot Noir exudes lovely floral notes of roses and lavender with a core of cranberries and red currants, plus hints of Provence herbs and fragrant earth. Light to medium-bodied, soft, elegant and filled with earthy/perfumed flavor layers, it delivers great expression and poise.”
