

2015 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ FLEURIE

Review Summary

91 pts/BEST BUY/Year's Best Red Burgundy “This is a concentrated Fleurie from a parcel of 80-year-old bush-vine gamay. The wine’s bright purple fruit has complex herbal intensity, like the earthy scent of digging in a garden of thyme and rosemary. There’s a tobacco note as well, a smoky meatiness to the tannins that would match up with a grilled lamb chop.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2017