

2013 d'ARENBERG THE LOVE GRASS

Review Summary

92 pts “This is a very successful wine, with softly woven fruit, oak and tannins all singing from the same page, and ready now.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2017

91 pts “Inky ruby. Smoke-accented cherry, blackberry and candied licorice on the highly perfumed nose. Vibrant black and blue fruit and violet pastille flavors feature a complementary peppery nuance and put on weight with aeration. Spicy and precise on the persistent finish, which shows appealing sweetness and just a hint of dusty tannins.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
October 2017