

2014 BROKENWOOD AREA BLEND SHIRAZ

Review Summary

BROKENWOOD

AUSTRALIAN CRAFT AT ITS FINEST

94 pts “Good color; a fresh, elegant, medium-bodied shiraz that ticks all the boxes. It’s already welcoming visitors and will continue doing so in the coming years, the fruits predominantly red, the tannins ripe and fine, the French oak exactly measured.”

91 pts “Bright ruby. An intensely perfumed bouquet evokes ripe black and blue fruits, camphor and cracked pepper, along with a hint of olive. Nicely concentrated blueberry, bitter cherry and floral pastille flavors show very good clarity, and a spine of juicy acidity adds structure. Melds richness and energy and finishes long and smoky, featuring sneaky tannins and a lingering suggestion of bitter chocolate.”
