

2015 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES RIESLING

Review Summary

93 pts “The vines are mature and the wine has a purity and precision that utterly belies its maritime climate. Small wonder why, with the benefit of the Leeuwin name, it flows out of the winery at such a rate.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2017

92 pts “Green-tinged straw. High-pitched citrus zest and floral aromas carry a smoky mineral overtone and a background hint of quinine. Vibrant, dry and focused on the palate, offering intense lime and green apple flavors that deepen and become juicier with air. Shows impressive tension and a bright mineral character on the incisive finish, which leaves behind bitter citrus pith and honeysuckle notes.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
October 2017

90 pts “...It’s got those same wet stone and citrus tendencies and is made in the same medium-bodied, dry, highacid style. There’s a touch of pineapple as well, plus a long, dry crisp finish.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
June 2017

90 pts – Very Good+ “This almost clear colored Riesling opens with a honeysuckle bouquet with hints of faint apricot and lime. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied, brisk and fresh. The flavor profile is a mild grapefruit with notes of minerality. I also detected hints of white pepper and lime. The finish is dry and very refreshing. This Riesling would pair nicely with grilled swordfish skewers.”

Ken Hoggins
KensWineGuide.com
February 12, 2017

90 pts “From 40-year-old original plantings, the 2015 Riesling Art Series is very pretty on the nose with honeysuckle, peach blossom and lime cordial notes, as well as a touch of anise. Light-bodied and dry, with great intensity, this wine has approachable softness and great length.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
March 2016

89 pts “Delivering green apple and lemon flavors that are lean, fresh and bright, this white has tangy acidity and a crisp, mouthwatering finish, with a touch of minerality.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
WineSpectator.com
2016

