

2014 CHAPTER 24 LAST CHAPTER

Review Summary

94 pts “Bright magenta. An intensely perfumed bouquet evokes ripe red berries, potpourri, vanilla and Asian spices, along with a smoky mineral overtone. Juicy and seamless on the palate, offering alluringly sweet raspberry liqueur, lavender pastille and spicecake flavors that deepen and spread out smoothly with aeration. Displays a suave blend of power and finesse and finishes with subtle tannic grip and superb, floral-tinged persistence.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
December 2016

92 pts “Delicate aromas of strawberry and citrus with hints of stone and spice. Medium body, firm and silky. Subtle and refined. I like the attractive leanness to the wine.”

James Suckling
JamesSuckling.com
December 15, 2017

91 pts “The 2014 Last Chapter comes from Hyland, Shea, Stardance (great name – this is an isolated vineyard with particular indigenous yeasts) and Tresori vineyards matured in 60% new French oak for 12 months. The bouquet is very harmonious and complex, a melange of red and black fruit, quite floral with iris and violet aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, a fine line of acidity, elegant in the mouth, but perhaps just needing a little more weight to come through on the finish. Still, this is a very well-crafted, sensual Pinot Noir.”

Neal Martin
Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
June 2016

91 pts “What this wine lacks in complexity it more than makes up for in its purity, freshness and mouthwatering buoyancy. Scents of smoke and toast give way to a plush robe of black cherry flavor, juicy, persistent and satisfying.”

Patrick Comiskey
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2016