

2015 BROKENWOOD HUNTER VALLEY SEMILLON

Review Summary

BROKENWOOD

AUSTRALIAN CRAFT AT ITS FINEST

94 pts “There’s a treasure trove of flavors in this wine ranging from citrus to a hint of stone fruit alongside lemongrass, making it a drop-dead drink-tonight (or whenever) proposition. Top gold medal in its class at the Adelaide Wine Show 2015.”

James Halliday
TheAustralian.com.au
February 6, 2016

91 pts “Pale gold. Sharply focused lemon zest, green apple and floral scents, along with a hint of chalky minerality. Dry and nervy in the mouth, offering bitter citrus pith and fresh orchard fruit flavors that put on weight with air. Nicely concentrated yet light on its feet, finishing with impressive energy, firm cut and strong, stony persistence.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
October 2017

91 pts “Has an abundance of flavors, venturing from citrus into a shadow of stone fruit, making it a drop-dead drink tonight (or whenever) proposition.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
December 2015

90 pts “Like most young Hunter Valley Semillons, this is starting out on the neutral, acidic side. Notes of melon and citrus rind only hint at the potential to be found in a few years’ time. It’s a little weightier than expected, with a silky mouthfeel and a long, gentle, lime-riddled finish.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
February 2017

89 pts “Mouthwatering green apple, lime and grapefruit flavors are intense, crisp and vibrant. Terrific persistence on the finish.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
WineSpectator.com
2016

88 pts “A bit like a dry gin and tonic, the 2015 Semillon would be a great refresher on a hot summer day. Lemon and lime notes carry the suggestion of brininess and a hint of crushed stones lingers on the finish.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
December 2017

