

2015 CHAPTER 24 LAST CHAPTER

Review Summary

94 pts “Dark bright-rimmed red. Pungent dark berry, cherry liqueur, incense and cola scents are lifted by a suggestion of peppery spices and a smoky mineral quality. Intense black raspberry, cherry pie and spicecake flavors slowly gain sweetness in the glass and pick up a suave floral pastille nuance. Quite youthful now, but unwinds nicely with air and finishes with appealing sweetness, slow-building tannins and outstanding persistence.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
January 2018

94 pts “Pale ruby-purple colored, the 2015 Last Chapter offers up a gorgeous violet, kirsch and pomegranate perfume with hints of tar and black soil. Light to medium-bodied, delicate and with wonderful energy, the tannins are exquisitely fine and it has a long, perfumed red berry finish.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate
August 2017

91 pts “Sleek and seamless, with expressive cherry and green tea aromas and elegantly layered plum and smoky licorice flavors that build depth toward the finish.”

Tim Fish
Wine Spectator
November 30, 2017