

2015 CHAPTER 24 FIRE + FLOOD THE FIRE

Review Summary

93 pts “Deep red. A highly perfumed bouquet evokes cherry cola, black raspberry and licorice, and a hint of mocha builds with aeration. Smooth and broad in the mouth, offering fleshy, spice-laced dark berry and bitter cherry flavors that convey a smoky nuance. Shows impressive clarity and power on a long, juicy finish framed by dusty, slow-building tannins.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
January 2018

92+ pts “Pale to medium ruby-purple colored, the 2015 The Fire reveals crushed raspberries and red cherry notes with hints of lavender, underbrush, dusty earth and moss. Medium-bodied, finely crafted, elegant and with oh-so-satiny tannins, the delicate bramble berry and earthy flavors are lifted by the lively acid backbone and it finishes with good persistence.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate
August 2017

90 pts “Focused and well-built, with violet and black raspberry aromas and layered, slightly brooding cherry and black tea flavors that linger toward refined tannins.”

Tim Fish
Wine Spectator
November 30, 2017