

2016 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES RIESLING

Review Summary

93 pts “This is a long time favorite for Australian riesling with stone, flint and spice character. Lemon, lime. Medium to full body, fruity and crisp. A beauty as always. Fresh. Super peppermint at finish.”

92 pts “Youthful apple and peach fruit come forward on a tightly structured palate characterized by austere acidity but in perfect balance. This has finesse and a taut mineral dryness at the end.”

91 pts “Every year this wine sells out long before any of the other wines in Leeuwin Estate’s portfolio, clearly it’s not broken, and there is no suggestion it needs fixing. It has lemon/lime citrus fruit, and the acidity doesn’t leave any mark. On the other side, its flavor is given by the fruit, residual sugar doesn’t play any part.”

88 pts “Fresh and lively, with transparent lime, pear and bright lemony flavors that are crisp and mouthwateringly refreshing on the steely finish.”
