

2017 GREYWACKE SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

90 pts “A wallflower when compared to other, more aggressively aromatic Kiwi Sauvignon Blancs, this wine offers hints of citrus, stone fruit, flowers and grass on the nose. The palate is of most interest here: It’s linear and chalky yet slippery in feel, with a fair lick of acidity that’s just barely balanced by fruit and florals.”

90 pts “This mineral infused Sauvignon Blanc offers an intriguing floral/herbal nose and a stony palate of lime and lemon that persists on a long, focused finish. A well-balanced, vivacious wine.”

89 pts “Kevin Judd’s 2017 Sauvignon Blanc features just-right touches of greenness, suggesting snow pea pods and cut grass. Those notes complement white grapefruit and tart pineapple flavors. This seems a bit lightweight and lean in style for Greywacke, but it’s still expressive, clean and correct, with a refreshing finish.”
