

2014 CLOS DU VAL THREE GRACES

Review Summary

95+ pts “The 2014 Three Graces is a new wine from Clos du Val that replaces the former Reserve. Inky, rich and powerful, the 2014 possesses superb intensity and resonance, with plenty of dark fruit spice, lavender and French oak notes. I suspect it will be at least a few years before the 2014 starts to show its full potential.”

94 pts/Cellar Selection “A spectacular capturing of an estate-grown site, this substantial age-worthy red is floral and intriguing in flavors of pencil, leather satchel, cedar and dried herb, even a touch of soy burrowing within. A touch of reduction makes it compelling to think about aging.”

94 pts “Aromas of blackberries, blackcurrants and dried flowers. Some wet earth. Full-bodied, layered and fruity. Shows richness with tension. A blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc and petit verdot.”
