

2015 SHOOFLY CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

90 pts “Light bright yellow. Ripe melon, tangerine and jasmine on the nose and in the mouth; a touch of honey builds in the glass. Silky and seamless in the mouth, offering juicy honeydew and citrus fruit flavors and a bitter orange zest flourish that adds back-end cut. Smoothly blends richness and vivacity and closes with bright, tangy lift and very good, floral persistence.”

Josh Reynolds, Vinous
October 2017

89 pts/Best Buy “This is an easy-drinking style, attractive in aromas of peach, pineapple, pressed yellow flowers, and butter that flow right into a light- to medium-weighted palate. A slightly chalky texture with more tropical fruit flavors carry to a spicy, vegetal finish.”

Christina Pickard, Wine Enthusiast
Best of Year 2017

89 pts “Pale straw; hints of citrus, peach and melon; the palate is straightforward and tightly proportioned.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2017

89 pts “A lovely, elegant mix of Asian pear, lime zest and melon flavors set on a light and lively frame. Spice accents linger on the finish.”

MaryAnn Worobiec, Wine Spectator
December 15, 2016

88 pts “This is a delightful Chardonnay from the Adelaide Hills: almost neutral on the nose, lightly lemony with green apples, and a stony, mineral undertone. It’s dry, firm, with crisp acidity — the fruit remains constrained on the palate, and lingers with a lemony-stony edge. Quite delicious, and quite the value!”

Tim Appelt, WineDiscovery.ca
May 27, 2018