

2015 PENLEY ESTATE STEYNING CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

94 pts “It carries a sweet, toffeed warmth which, in the context of the wine’s flamboyant display of dark chocolate and ground coffee flavors, doesn’t seem out of place. Both balance and freshness have been tweaked in quality’s favor, and tannin has a sweet, ripe sense of control to it. But you’re still left wondering why the alcohols have been allowed to run so high.”
