

2016 GIANT STEPS SEXTON VINEYARD PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

95 pts “Deep color; the bouquet breathes black cherries, dark spices, the palate the fullest and more plummy than either Primavera or (at the other extreme) Applejack. Overall, the most powerful... of the trio.”

91 pts “Hints of cinnamon join with tart cherries and damp earth on the nose of the 2016 Sexton Vineyard Pinot Noir. It’s a medium-bodied, silky-textured wine, with subtle wooding (30% new oak) and a whole-bunch component (30%) that’s well-integrated into the wine. For overall harmony—and superb length—this looks to be Giant Steps’ top Pinot this vintage.”
