

MAISON L'ENVOYÉ
BOURGOGNE BLANC
2014

“This very nice French Chardonnay from the Maconnaise area of Burgundy is a pretty yellow with a slight greenish tinge in the glass. On the nose, I picked up aromas of lemon, orange blossom, light oak and green hay. It is light to medium bodied and a bit rustic with bright acidity. Its flavors are a slightly earthy green apple and lemon rind with integrated minerality. It has a very pleasant long finish with citrus, spice and hazelnut notes.”
