

2014 YERINGBERG CABERNET BLEND

Review Summary

96 pts “Right in the mainstream of the Yeringberg style, refined but not apologetic. All the components make their mark, yet stay well within the cabernet family. Blackcurrant/cassis, cedar, olive and earth notes all combine, the tannins pitched to perfection. A long life ahead.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion

95 pts “Another very elegant rendition of this wine. It shows notes of brambleberries, cedar, pine needles, redcurrants and more plummy notes, as well as freshly picked herbs that never pop out too much. Medium to full body with a rather sophisticated tannin structure that’s never intrusive. A taut yet well-rounded finish.”

92 pts “Dense and rustic, with sinewy tannins and tar, graphite and tobacco accents to the thick, chewy core of blackberry and plum. There’s plenty of charm here, and much hope for the cellar.”

90+ pts “Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2014 Cabernet Blend is intensely scented of crème de cassis, blueberry preserves and licorice with hints of cloves, bay leaves and chocolate box. Medium-bodied with great vibrancy, it has a chewy structure with oodles of freshness, finishing long and layered.”
