

2015 JOHN DUVAL WINES ELIGO

Review Summary

97 pts “75% Barossa Valley, 25% Eden Valley, as always, the best grapes of the vintage. The power and intensity of this wine takes your breath away. Its dark, brooding black fruits are woven together by firm tannins that are an essential part of the wine. It’s certain that 20 months in 55% new French hogsheads has also imprinted itself on the bouquet and palate, but its presence is (relatively) subtle. I would give a longer drink to date if it were under screwcap, but the cork used is high quality, and should see out 25 years.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
2019