

2015 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN GRENACHE SHIRAZ MATARO

Review Summary

91 pts “The full crimson color sends an alert that there may be more to this blend than the usual wishy washy wine of the Clare Valley, and doesn’t deceive. It opens with bright and lively red cherry and blackberry fruits and finishes with convincing tannins.”

James Halliday, Halliday Wine Companion
2019

90 pts “Pale to medium garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Killerman’s Run Grenache Shiraz Mataro is redolent of kirsch, baked raspberries and Chinese five spice with hints of white pepper and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied with plush tannins and a generous amount of spicy red berry preserves flavors, it has a long peppery finish.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate
August 2017

88 pts “The French oak is prominent in this classic blend, but it’s more or less balanced by ripe red fruit, sweet spice and hints of chocolate and smoke. The palate is medium to full bodied, red fruited, and finishes with charred, smokey flavors that last long.”

Christina Pickard, Wine Enthusiast
Best of Year 2017

88 pts “Firm, with juicy wild berry flavors and fresh herb highlights, fresh earth and black tea notes gaining momentum on the finish.”

MaryAnn Worobiec, Wine Spectator
December 15, 2017

88 pts “Attractive grenache fruits sit across ripe dark fruits. There’s a thread of reliable grainy tannins that floats up through the finish. A little spicy burst to close it out.”

Nick Stock, JamesSuckling.com
July 17, 2017