

2015 YERINGBERG PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

97 pts “A bright, sparkling crimson-purple and enticing; so too the aromas of florals, red fruits and some woody spices, the oak perfectly integrated. It’s deceptive at first at it feels effortless and lighter bodied, which it is, but it builds adding layers of fine tannin, more fruit and cleansing acidity.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
2019