

2015 CULLEN
EPHRAIM CLARKE
SAUVIGNON BLANC SEMILLON

Review Summary

96 pts “The complex bouquet brings toasty oak, cut grass and hints of stone fruit into play, the palate pulling out all the stops with its mix of tropical fruits and citrusy acidity.”

93 pts/Top 50 Margaret River buys – #12 “Biodynamic, 74% of the Sauvignon Blanc aged in new oak. Tight and fine on the nose, pristine tropical flavors, greengage and white peach; zesty, lemony acidity to finish.”

93 pts “Cooked apple, stone and lanolin aromas and flavors. Dense and fruity. Full body, intense fruit. Long and flavorful finish. Green mango and gun metal qualities are fascinating.”

92 pts “Light bright gold. Complex aromas of ripe orchard and pit fruits, buttered toast, smoky lees and white flowers. Supple and expansive on the palate, offering intense nectarine, pear and Meyer lemon flavors that pick up a suggestion of honey with aeration. Fleshy and densely packed but surprisingly energetic, finishing with powerful thrust and a smoky mineral flourish.”

91 pts “The 2015 Ephraim Clarke Sauvignon Blanc Semillon is close to a 3:1 ratio of Sauvignon Blanc to Sémillon. Partially barrel-fermented and aged, it shows hints of toast and lemon curd on the nose and palate, a delicate feel on the medium-bodied palate and a long, silky finish tinged with vanilla.”

90 pts “Intense, with bold, up-front notes of coconut custard and honeysuckle that melt into more subtle flavors of peach and grapefruit. A spicy thread picks up momentum on the juicy finish.”
