

2016 JOHN DUVAL WINES ENTITY SHIRAZ

Review Summary

97 pts “Deeply colored; this is at once full-bodied and elegant, not a common marriage with young red wines with decades in front of them. The flavors are all black: blackberry, blackcurrant, black cherry, earth and licorice. The old vines have also provided ripe tannins, the whole theme resonated with oak a la Grange.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
2019