

2016 YERINGBERG PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

93 pts “A fragrant nose of rose perfume, freshly picked strawberries and wild cherries, citrus and orange rind. The palate is very suave with layers of riper forest fruits, which are matched by an edgy sheen of tannins and bright acidity. A firm yet juicy finish.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
August 14, 2018