

2016 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ STRAIGHT SHOOTER PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

91 pts/Best Buy “Coasting on a seductive mélange of savory tobacco, woodsmoke, Scotch and mushrooms, this pinot opens to reveal a lovely core of muddled strawberry flavor. It’s generous but made tense by acidity and all that savor. Chill slightly before serving with a wood-fired mushroom pizza.”

90 pts “Brilliant red. Lively red and blue fruit aromas show good clarity and pick up floral and allspice nuances with air. Silky and seamless in texture, offering sweet black raspberry and cherry flavors that show good depth as well as energy. In an emphatically fruity style; the long, smooth, berry-dominated finish is framed by discreet tannins.”

89 pts “Pale to medium ruby-purple in color, the 2016 Straight Shooter Pinot Noir is scented of crisp, fresh red fruits: red cherries, currants and cranberries with underlying smoke and herbal notions. The light to medium-bodied palate is very lifted and fresh, with some herbal accents from the experimental 50% whole cluster used for this cuvée, with fine, grainy tannins, finishing long, fresh and fruity.”
