

2017 JOHN DUVAL WINES PLEXUS MRV

Review Summary

90 pts “Pear drops, cooked apples and preserved lemons. Medium body, a fine line of acidity and a spicy finish.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
August 15, 2018

89 pts “Equal parts Marsanne and Roussanne, plus 10% Viognier, the 2017 Plexus Blanc features modest aromas of pineapple and pear. On the palate, it’s quite lean for a warm-climate Rhône blend, being only medium-bodied, with a crisp, fresh, silky feel.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
August 2018