

2015 GREYWACKE CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

93 pts “Very polished, with vanilla bean and mocha aromas to the velvety core of rich black cherry and blackberry flavors. Despite the boldness, this wine shows plenty of restraint, with details filling in the gaps to give this a seamless expression, revealing grace notes of Thai iced tea and wild thyme.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
February 2018

92 pts “Creamy lemon meringue, yellow apple and pear notes are pure, stylish and supple, with delicate accents of spice and toast. Strikes the right balance between intense flavors and an elegant frame.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
October 15, 2018

90 pts “Like the previous vintage, this is a full-bodied Chard charging out of the gate with toasted nut and smoke aromas, threaded through with soft pineapple and stone fruit and vanillin oak. The palate is more restrained while still being rich. It's creamy in texture, with yet more nutty, smoky, ripe fruit and wood spice flavors balanced by crunchy acidity.”

Christina Pickard
Wine Enthusiast
March 2019