VINTAGE :

2015 was a wonderful growing year, particularly for those with the 'terroirs' that were able to cope with the long periods of drought and high temperatures. Clos Cantenac's deep rooted vines fared well during the prolonged period of dry from April until August. A couple of small rain events in mid-September refreshed the vines and cleaned the grapes. The quality of the harvest was very high, easily the equal of 2009 and 2010 vintages.

WINEMAKING :

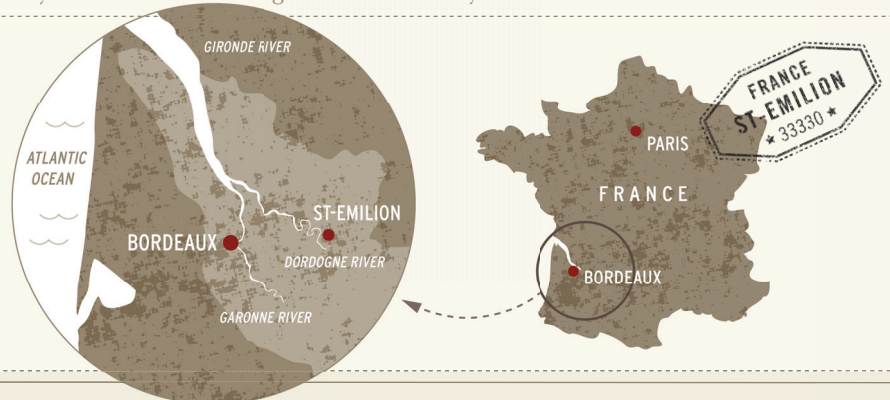

The grapes were hand harvested and transported to the winery where some juice was drained in order to concentrate the must. A seven day cold maceration followed to help develop primary fruit aromas. Fermentation lasted five days at medium temperatures with regular pumpovers. The wine then underwent a fifteen day, post-ferment maceration period to further refine the tannins. Malolactic fermentation took place in barrels (40% new French oak and 60% second use French oak). The wines were aged for 14 months before bottling.

TASTING NOTES :

The wine shows fresh and rich notes of black plums, cassis, raspberry, figs, and fine leather, with hints of ginger and spice and soft vanillary new oak. On the palate, it is full-bodied with firm but carefully weighted tannins on the entry, which become more defined as the wine lingers in the mouth, with dense savoury and earthy characters leading towards a rounded, supple, blackberry and plum finish that displays good restraint and poise.

CLOS CANTENAC :

Clos Cantenac is a small but seductive 15 acre property with carefully planted vines on an exceptional terroir of deep gravel, sand and clay over limestone situated close to the prehistoric "Megalith de Pierrefitte." This enchanting Saint Emilion vineyard was purchased in January 2007 by Martin Krajewski along with his great friend and wine enthusiast Marcus Le Grice from New Zealand. The pair immediately made a multitude of vineyard improvements and renovated the ancient 200 year old winery in preparation for the first harvest in late September 2007. Clos Cantenac proudly respects both the history and culture of the region to traditionally craft these fine Grand Cru wines.
