

2016 PENLEY ESTATE ATLAS SHIRAZ

Review Summary

92 pts “Penley Estate has lifted its game of late and this is a prime example. Happy days. It’s chunky with flavor, in a good way. High toast, caramel, roasted plums and a punchy, briary sweetness to the finish. It feels as though it’s bursting to impress, and at the price that’s rarely a bad thing.”

89 pts “Minty up front, with a fresh herbal accent that brings focus to the core of cherry, blackberry and raspberry. The fresh and bright tannins add some traction on the finish.”

88 pts “From the iron-rich red soils of Coonawarra, this wine wafts ripe blackberries, black cherries, licorice, dark chocolate and dried herbs along a savory spine. Tannins are quite tightly wound and drying, but they do keep all the luscious ripe berry and herbal notes in line. There’s a pleasing plummy lift at the finish.”
