

2017 GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

91 pts “Baked apple notes emerge on the nose of the 2017 Pinot Gris. This is medium to full-bodied but with greater focus and delineation than in most vintages (along with perhaps a touch less ripeness). Lemon and lime notes, even a hint of bergamot, bring intriguing citrusy complexities to the finish.”
