

2015 YERINGBERG CABERNET BLEND

Review Summary

97 pts/TOP 100 AUSTRALIAN WINES OF 2018 – #20 “From a ripe and approachable vintage with plenty of depth, this 2015 Yeringberg is a showpiece of great Bordeaux-esque style. Aromas of blackcurrants, red plums, red cherries and red flowers are augmented by the lightly leafy and earthy cabernet characters. The palate delivers a very fleshy, silky and powerful array of ripe red cherries, plums and blueberries in a silky, concentrated guise. This accomplished blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, merlot, petit verdot and malbec is in stunning form.”

Nick Stock, JamesSuckling.com
December 10, 2018

96 pts “The wine has presence, charm and elegance in equal measure. A blend of cabernet sauvignon 66%, cabernet franc 13% with splashes of merlot, petit verdot and malbec, all of which has created a medium-bodied wine. Expect a mix of red berries and leafy freshness, some menthol and spice with super fine tannins and excellent length. It’s a contemplative wine to savor.”

James Halliday, Halliday Wine Companion
2019

93 pts “Guill de Pury and his daughter Sandra make this field blend from vines the family planted in successive generations, the oldest from 1969, the youngest from 2002. In this vintage, it’s a blend of cabernet sauvignon (66 percent), franc (13 percent), merlot, petit verdot and malbec. With an extended maceration and long aging in French oak barrels (40 percent new), the wine feels luxurious and elegant, with breathable minerality in its savory plum flavors. The fruit-skin zestiness is what makes it spicy, and it opens beautifully with extended exposure to air. A clean, detailed wine with stature and grace, this is set to age for a decade or more.”

Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2019

93 pts “A Bordeaux-style blend of five grape varieties led by Cabernet Sauvignon, Yeringberg’s 2015 Proprietary Red reveals some toasty oak on the nose but also suave tannins and undeniable class. It’s beautifully proportioned and balanced, with hints of pencil shavings that highlight cassis fruit, a fine, silky mouthfeel and a lingering, smooth finish.”

Joe Czerwinski, Robert Parker Wine Advocate
June 2018