

2017 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES RIESLING

Review Summary

92 pts/Editors' Choice “This wine offers slightly underripe pineapple, citrus, freshly picked green herbs and honeysuckle on the nose, all backed by a prominent streak of minerality. The palate is chalky and tightly wound, sliced by fabulous citrusy acidity and juicy fruit that linger on the long finish.”

Christina Pickard
Wine Enthusiast
October 2019

91 pts “Plenty of citrus and some leafy notes. This has an attractive appeal.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
August 15, 2018

89 pts “Meyer lemon and kaffir lime to kumquat. Chewy lines. Sherbet acid tang to talc. Easy-going riesling, forever reliable. A stalwart.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
2019

88 pts “Bursting with vivid lime, white grapefruit and citrus skin flavors on a mouthwateringly crisp frame, with touches of lemon verbena lingering.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
WineSpectator.com
2019