

2016 d'ARENBERG THE HIGH TRELLIS

Review Summary

91 pts/Best Buy “This is made in the d’Arenberg tradition, foot trod in open-top vats, then basket pressed, the juice aged in American oak barrels. It’s a big, bold, powerfully concentrated cabernet, a wine that improves as it develops with air, lengthening out and showing its depths of fruit and mineral complexity. A keeper and a steal at $20.”

91 pts “This has an array of dark chocolate and redcurrants with a firm thread of tannin and a mouthwatering, long and taut finish.”
